this book presents the main teachings of edward schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important catholic thinkers of the twentieth century schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world because today s world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally in his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional christian doctrines primarily the supernatural essence of christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world in schillebeeckx's thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology god is man's terrestrial future christ the symbol of universal human values and the church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today's people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way what motivates practice of the liturgy and sacramental rites of the church does the worship of god begin and end within each ritual enactment or does the truth and value of sacramental celebration reside in the broader context of christian life in church and society for more than two decades prominent jesuit sacramental liturgical theologian bruce morrill has explored the promise and problems inherent in the second vatican council's call to renew liturgy's basic purpose namely the glorification of god and the sanctification of people morrill's fundamental argument is that this ancient christian principle is of a piece that divine glory and human holiness are so to speak two sides of a single coin the value of liturgy and sacraments is depleted if not lost unless they function within a holistic practice of faith that seeks the upbuilding of ethical lives personal and social with numerous real life examples plus references to current sociological studies the chapters address both modern challenges to and biblical and traditional resources for the celebration of sacramental rites today between the politics of mysticism and the mysticism of politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective it presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the roman catholic tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century
